

FOOTBALL SUPPORTERS ASSOCIATION AUSTRALIA INC CONSTITUTION

Under the Associations Incorporation Act 2009

Established 2023

About this constitution

This constitution forms the structure within which the Football Supporters Association Australia (FSAA) operates.

This is a modified version of the Model constitution prepared by NSW Fair Trading, as last updated 1 September 2022, and covers the matters required by law. As a modified version, changes to the Model constitution, after 1 September 2022, by NSW Fair Trading do not apply to this constitution.

However, if this constitution fails to address a matter outlined in Schedule 1 of the Associations Incorporation Act 2009 (the Act), the current Model constitution applies for that matter and forms part of the association's constitution.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1987 applies to this constitution as if it were an instrument made under the Act.

Note: The Act, Part 4 deals with various matters relating to the management of associations.

2 Association Objects

(1) The Objects of the association are:

- (a) To be a uniting body to advocate for, and on behalf of Australian Football Supporters,
- (b) To encourage, promote and develop the support of football at all levels and formats of the game,
- (c) To seek representation in the governance structures of the governing bodies, leagues and clubs, as well as promoting good governance practices to ensure the integrity and sustainability of football in Australia,

- (d) To work with supporters, governing bodies, clubs and authorities to promote and embed meaningful supporter engagement at all levels, including consulting on issues and decisions affecting fans,
- (e) To promote a positive supporter culture that rejects violence and discrimination whilst supporting passion, respect and safety,
- (f) To liaise with all relevant parties to achieve these objectives.
- (g) To promote and maintain the values of the association (see annexure A).

Part 2 Members of association

3 Membership generally

- (1) An individual is taken to be a member of the association if:
  - (a) the person applied to be a member under clause 4(1) and the application has been approved, or
  - (b) the person was 1 of the individuals on whose behalf an application for registration of the association was made under the Act, section 6(1)(a), or
- (2) A person who is not an individual is not eligible to be a member of the association.

4 Membership applications

- (1) An application by a person to be a member of the association must be:
  - (a) made in writing, and
  - (b) in the form determined by the committee, and
  - (c) lodged with the secretary.
- (2) The committee may determine that an application may be made or lodged by email or other electronic means.
- (3) The secretary must refer an application to the committee as soon as practicable after receiving the application.
- (4) The committee must approve or reject the application.
- (5) As soon as practicable after the committee has decided the application, the secretary must:
  - (a) give the applicant written notice of the decision, including by email or other electronic means if determined by the committee, and
- (6) The secretary must enter the applicant's name in the register of members as soon as practicable after the application is approved.
- (7) The applicant becomes a member once the applicant's name is entered in the register.

5 Register of members

- (1) The secretary must establish and maintain a register of members of the association.
- (2) The register:
  - (a) may be in written or electronic form, and
  - (b) must include, for each member:
    - (i) the member's full name, and
    - (ii) a residential, postal or email address, and
    - (iii) the date on which the person became a member, and
    - (iv) if the person ceases to be a member - the date on which the person ceased to be a member, and
  - (c) must be kept in New South Wales:
    - (i) at the association's main premises, or
    - (ii) if the association has no premises - at the association's official address, and
  - (d) must be available for inspection, free of charge, by members at a reasonable time, and
  - (e) if kept in electronic form - must be able to be converted to hard copy.
- (3) If the register is kept in electronic form, the requirements in subclause (2)(c) and (d) apply as if a reference to the register is a reference to a current hard copy of the register.
- (4) A member may obtain a hard copy of the register, or a part of the register, on payment of a fee of not more than $1, plus any postage costs, as determined by the committee, for each page copied. A member may obtain an electronic copy and there is to be no fee for the provision of an electronic copy.
- (5) Information about a member, other than the member's name, must not be made available for inspection.
- (6) A member must not use information about a member obtained from the register to contact or send material to the member, unless:
  - (a) the information is used to send the member:
    - (i) a newsletter, or
    - (ii) a notice for a meeting or other event relating to the association, or
    - (iii) other material relating to the association, or
  - (b) it is necessary to comply with a requirement of the Act or the Regulation.

6 Fees and subscriptions

- (1) The entrance fee to be paid to the association by a person whose application to be a member of the association has been approved is:
  - (a) $0.00

- (2) The annual subscription fee is to be $0.00

7 Members' liabilities

The liability of a member of the association to contribute to the payment of either of the following is limited to the amount of any outstanding fees for the member under clause 6:

- (a) the debts and liabilities of the association,
- (b) the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up of the association.

8 Disciplinary action against members

- (1) A person may make a complaint to the committee that a member of the association has:
  - (a) failed to comply with a provision of this constitution, or
  - (b) breached the Association's code of conduct, or
  - (c) otherwise wilfully acted in a way prejudicial to the interests of the association.
- (2) The committee may refuse to deal with a complaint if the committee considers the complaint is trivial or vexatious.
- (3) If the committee decides to deal with the complaint, the committee must:
  - (a) serve notice of the complaint on the member, and
  - (b) give the member at least 14 days from the day the notice is served on the member within which to make submissions to the committee about the complaint, and
  - (c) consider any submissions made by the member.
- (4) The committee may, by resolution, expel the member from the association or suspend the member's membership if, after considering the complaint, the committee is satisfied that:
  - (a) the facts alleged in the complaint have been proved, and
  - (b) the expulsion or suspension is warranted.
- (5) If the committee expels or suspends the member, the secretary must, within 7 days of that action being taken, give the member written notice of:
  - (a) the action taken, and
  - (b) the reasons given by the committee for taking the action, and
  - (c) the member's right of appeal under clause 9.
- (6) The expulsion or suspension does not take effect until the later of the following:
  - (a) the day the period within which the member is entitled to exercise the member's right of appeal expires, or
  - (b) if the member exercises the member's right of appeal within the period - the day the association confirms the resolution under clause 9.

9 Right of appeal against disciplinary action

- (1) A member may appeal against a resolution of the committee under clause 8 by lodging a notice of appeal with the secretary within 7 days of being served notice of the resolution.
- (2) The member may include, with the notice of appeal, a statement of the grounds on which the member intends to rely for the purposes of the appeal.
- (3) The secretary must notify the committee that the secretary has received a notice of appeal.
- (4) If notified that a notice has been received, the committee must refer the appeal to a subcommittee, established to determine appeals, to be held within 28 days of the day the notice was received.
- (5) The subcommittee:
  - (a) must give the member an opportunity to state the member's case orally or in writing, or both, and
  - (b) must give the committee the opportunity to state the committee's case orally or in writing, or both, and
  - (c) the members forming the subcommittee must vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.
- (6) The appeal is to be determined by a simple majority of votes cast by the subcommittee members.

10 Resolution of internal disputes

- (1) The following disputes must be referred to a subcommittee established for the determination of disputes, for dispute resolution:
  - (a) a dispute between 2 or more members of the association, but only if the dispute is between the members in their capacity as members, or
  - (b) a dispute between 1 or more members and the association.
- (2) The subcommittee may direct that the parties to the dispute:
  - (a) participate in mediation, mediated by a member of the subcommittee; or
  - (b) participate in arbitration, arbitrated by a member of the subcommittee; or
  - (c) participate in a combination of the above, as required.
- (3) The subcommittee may determine its processes for the dispute resolution referred to in subclause (2) but this must be communicated to the parties to the dispute prior to any dispute resolution commencing.

11 Membership entitlements not transferable

A right, privilege or obligation that a person has because the person is a member of the association:

- (a) cannot be transferred to another person, and
- (b) terminates once the person ceases to be a member of the association.

12 Member resignation

- (1) A member of the association may resign from being a member by giving the secretary written notice of at least 1 week, or another period determined by the committee, of the member's intention to resign.
- (2) The member ceases to be a member on the expiration of the notice period or when the Secretary includes the cessation of members on the register, whichever occurs earlier.

13 Cessation of membership

A person ceases to be a member of the association if the person:

- (a) dies, or
- (b) resigns from being a member, or
- (c) is expelled from the association.

Part 3 Committee

Division 1 Constitution

14 Functions of committee

Subject to the Act, the Regulation, this constitution and any resolution passed by the association in general meeting, the committee:

- (a) is to control and manage the affairs of the association, and
- (b) may exercise all the functions that may be exercised by the association, other than a function that is required to be exercised by the association in general meeting, and
- (c) has power to do all things that are necessary or convenient to be done for the proper management of the affairs of the association.

15 Composition of committee

- (1) The committee must have at least 5 and up to 15 members, as elected in accordance with clause 16, consisting of:
  - (a) the following office-bearers:
    - (i) the chairperson,
    - (ii) the deputy chairperson, operations,
    - (iii) the deputy chairperson, strategy,
    - (iv) the secretary,
    - (v) the financial officer, and
  - (b) up to 10 ordinary committee members.

Note - The Act, section 28 contains requirements relating to membership eligibility and composition of the committee.

- (2) An office-bearer may hold only 1 office at a time.

16 Election of committee members

- (1) Any member of the association may be nominated as a candidate for election as an office-bearer or ordinary committee member.
- (2) The nomination must identify the position or positions the candidate is nominated for and must be:
  - (a) made in writing in a form determined by the committee, and
  - (b) signed or electronically signed by at least 1 member of the association, not including the candidate, and
  - (c) accompanied by the written consent of the candidate to the nomination, and
  - (d) Accompanied by a declaration of any conflicts of interest, as defined by clause 19, and
  - (e) given to the secretary at least 7 days before the date fixed for the annual general meeting at which the election is to take place.
- (3) With respect to office-bearer positions:
  - (a) if only 1 candidate is nominated for a position, that candidate is taken to be elected to that position,
  - (b) if there are no nominations for 1 or more positions, a call for further nominations for those positions must be made at the meeting,
  - (c) If more than 1 nomination is received for 1 or more positions, a ballot will be held for each position with more than 1 nomination in a manner as determined by the committee.
- (4) With respect to ordinary committee member positions:
  - (a) The number of vacant positions to be filled at an election will be determined by the committee, in accordance with clause 15, and announced with the notice of AGM. Any vacant positions not determined to be filled at an election are taken to be casual vacancies.
  - (b) If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacant positions to be filled, the members nominated are taken to be elected.
  - (c) if insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacant positions to be filled:
    - (i) the candidates nominated are taken to be elected, and
    - (ii) a call for further nominations must be made at the meeting.
  - (d) If the number of nominations received is more than the number of vacant positions to be filled, a ballot will be held in a manner as determined by the committee.
- (5) A nomination made at the meeting in response to a call for further nominations must be made in the way directed by the member presiding at the meeting.
- (6) Vacancies that remain after a call for further nominations are taken to be casual vacancies.

17 Terms of office

- (1) Subject to this constitution, a committee member holds office from the day the member is elected until immediately before the next annual general meeting, at which time all positions are declared vacant.
- (2) A member is eligible, if otherwise qualified, for re-election.
- (3) There is no limit on the number of consecutive terms for which a committee member may hold office.

18 Vacancies in office

- (1) A casual vacancy in the office of a committee member arises if the member:
  - (a) dies, or
  - (b) ceases to be a member of the association, or
  - (c) resigns from office by written notice given to the secretary, or
  - (d) is removed from office by the association under this clause, or
  - (e) is removed from office by the association under clause 19, or
  - (f) is absent from 3 consecutive meetings of the committee without the consent of the committee, or
  - (g) becomes an insolvent under administration within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth, or
  - (h) is prohibited from being a director of a company under the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth, Part 2D.6, or
  - (i) is convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty for which the maximum penalty is imprisonment for at least 3 months, or
  - (j) becomes a mentally incapacitated person.
- (2) The association in general meeting may, by resolution:
  - (a) remove a committee member from office at any time, and
  - (b) appoint another member of the association to hold office for the balance of the committee member's term of office.
- (3) A committee member to whom a proposed resolution referred to in subclause (2) relates may:
  - (a) give a written statement, of a reasonable length, to the chairperson or secretary, and
  - (b) request that the committee send a copy of the statement to each member of the association at least 7 days before the general meeting at which the proposed resolution will be considered.
- (4) If the committee fails to send a copy of a statement received under subclause (3)(a) to each member in accordance with a request made under subclause

- (3)(b), the statement must be read aloud by the member presiding at the general meeting at which the proposed resolution will be considered.
- (5) The committee may appoint a member of the association to fill a casual vacancy other than a vacancy arising from the removal from office of a committee member.
- (6) Subject to this constitution, a member appointed to fill a casual vacancy holds office until the next annual general meeting.

19 Conflicts of Interest

- (1) A conflict of interest includes:
  - (a) any interest that creates an actual conflict, or a reasonable apprehension or perception of a conflict, to the interests and objects of the association, and
  - (b) any interest that would prevent or could be reasonably perceived to prevent a committee member from carrying out the functions of that member's office and/or acting in the interests of the association's members.
- (2) Each committee member must declare any conflict of interest
- (3) The conflict must be declared as soon as practicable after the committee member becomes aware of the conflict.
- (4) The conflict will be noted and recorded on a conflict register maintained by the committee.
- (5) A committee member who fails to declare a conflict will be subject to any action, deemed appropriate in the circumstances, by the other committee members, including but not limited to removal from office and/or removal from the association.

20 Secretary

- (1) As soon as practicable after being elected as secretary, the secretary must lodge a notice with the association specifying the secretary's address.
- (2) The secretary must keep minutes of:
  - (a) all elections of committee members, and
  - (b) the names of committee members present at a meeting of the committee or a general meeting, and
  - (c) all proceedings at committee meetings and general meetings.
- (3) The minutes must be:
  - (a) kept in written or electronic form, and
  - (b) for minutes of proceedings at a meeting -signed, in writing or by electronic means, by:
    - (i) the member who presided at the meeting, or
    - (ii) the member presiding at the subsequent meeting.

21 Financial Officer

The financial officer of the association must ensure—

- (a) all money owed or gifted to the association is collected, and
- (b) all payments authorised by the association are made, and
- (c) correct books and accounts are kept showing the financial affairs of the association, including full details of receipts and expenditure relating to the association's activities.

22 Delegation to subcommittees

- (1) The committee may:
  - (a) establish 1 or more subcommittees to assist the committee to exercise the committee's functions, and
  - (b) appoint 1 or more members of the association to be the members of the subcommittee.
- (2) The committee may delegate to the subcommittee the exercise of the committee's functions specified in the instrument, other than:
  - (a) this power of delegation, or
  - (b) a duty imposed on the committee by the Act or another law.

Note: The Interpretation Act 1987, section 49 deals with various matters relating to delegations.

Division 2 Procedure

23 Committee meetings

- (1) The committee must meet at least 3 times in each 12-month period at the place and time determined by the committee.
- (2) Additional meetings of the committee may be called by any committee member.
- (3) The procedure for calling and conducting business at a meeting of a subcommittee is to be as determined by the subcommittee.

Note: The Act, section 30(1) provides that committee meetings may be held as and when the association's constitution requires.

24 Notice of committee meeting

- (1) The secretary must give each committee member oral or written notice of a meeting of the committee at least 48 hours, or another period on which the committee members unanimously agree, before the time the meeting is due to commence.
- (2) The notice must describe the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.
- (3) The only business that may be transacted at the meeting is:
  - (a) the business described in the notice, and
  - (b) business that the committee members present at the meeting unanimously agree is urgent business.

25 Quorum

- (1) The quorum for a meeting of the committee is 51% (rounded up to the nearest whole number) of committee members, including at least 1 office-bearer.
- (2) No business may be transacted by the committee unless a quorum is present.
- (3) If a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time the meeting commences, the meeting is adjourned:
  - (a) to the same place, and
  - (b) to the same time of the same day in the following week.
- (4) If a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time the adjourned meeting commences, the meeting is dissolved.
- (5) If the number of committee members is less than the number required to constitute a quorum for a committee meeting, the committee members may appoint 1 or more members of the association as committee members to enable the quorum to be constituted.
- (6) A committee member appointed under subclause (5) holds office, subject to this constitution, until the next annual general meeting.
- (7) This clause does not apply to the filling of a casual vacancy to which clause 18 applies.

Note: The Act, section 28A provides for the filling of vacancies on the committee to constitute a quorum.

26 Presiding committee member

- (1) The following committee member presides at a meeting of the committee:
  - (a) the chairperson,
  - (b) if the chairperson is absent - the deputy chairperson, operations,

- (1) The association must hold the association's first annual general meeting within 18 months of the day the association was registered under the Act.
- (2) The association must hold subsequent annual general meetings within:
  - (a) 6 months of the last day of the association's financial year, or
  - (b) the later period allowed or prescribed in accordance with the Act, section 37(2)(b).
- (3) Subject to the Act and subclauses (1) and (2), the annual general meeting is to be held at the place and time determined by the committee.
- (4) The business that may be transacted at an annual general meeting includes the following:

- (a) confirming the minutes of the previous annual general meeting and any special general meetings held since the previous annual general meeting,
- (b) receiving reports from the committee on the association's activities during the previous financial year,
- (c) electing office-bearers and ordinary committee members,
- (d) receiving and considering financial statements or reports required to be submitted to members of the association under the Act.

Note: The Act, section 37(1) and (2) provides for when annual general meetings must be held.

31 Special general meetings

- (1) The committee may call a special general meeting whenever the committee thinks fit.
- (2) The committee must call a special general meeting if the committee receives a request made by at least 5% of the total number of members.
- (3) The request:
  - (a) must be in writing, and
  - (b) must state the purpose of the meeting, and
  - (c) must be signed by the members making the request, and
  - (d) may consist of more than 1 document in a similar form signed by 1 or more members, and
  - (e) must be lodged with the secretary, and
  - (f) may be in electronic form and signed and lodged by electronic means.
- (4) If the committee fails to call a special general meeting within 1 month of the request being lodged, 1 or more of the members who made the request may call a special general meeting to be held within 3 months of the date the request was lodged.
- (5) A special general meeting held under subclause (4) must be conducted, as far as practicable, in the same way as a general meeting called by the committee.

32 Notice of general meeting

- (1) The secretary must give each member notice of a general meeting:
  - (a) if a matter to be determined at the meeting requires a special resolution - at least 21 days before the meeting, or
  - (b) otherwise - at least 14 days before the meeting.
- (2) The notice must specify:
  - (a) the place and time at which the meeting will be held, and
  - (b) the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting, and
  - (c) if a matter to be determined at the meeting requires a special resolution - that a special resolution will be proposed, and
  - (d) for an annual general meeting - that the meeting to be held is an annual general meeting.

- (3) The only business that may be transacted at the meeting is:
  - (a) the business specified in the notice, and
  - (b) for an annual general meeting - business referred to in clause 30(4).
- (4) A member may give written notice to the secretary of business the member wishes to raise at a general meeting.
- (5) If the secretary receives a notice under subclause (4), the secretary must specify the nature of the business in the next notice calling a general meeting.

33 Quorum

- (1) The quorum for a general meeting is 5 members of the association entitled to vote under this constitution.
- (2) No business may be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum is present.
- (3) If a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time the meeting commences, the meeting:
  - (a) if called on the request of members - is dissolved, or
  - (b) otherwise - is adjourned:
    - (i) to the same time of the same day in the following week, and
    - (ii) to the same place, unless another place is specified by the member presiding at the meeting at the time of the adjournment or in a written notice given to members at least 1 day before the adjourned meeting.
- (4) If a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time an adjourned meeting commences, but there are at least 3 members present, the members present constitute a quorum.

34 Adjourned meetings

- (1) The member presiding at a general meeting may, with the consent of the majority of the members present, adjourn the meeting to another time and place.
